Pennsylvania lobbyist Bill Ryan joins Saxton & Stump's government affairs group

FIRM NEWSPRESS RELEASE

JULY 30, 2024

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 30, 2024 — The Saxton & Stump Regulatory and Government Affairs Group is proud to announce the addition of long-time political strategist and healthcare lobbyist Bill Ryan, who joins the firm on August 1, 2024. With over 40 years of political experience, Ryan is highly connected in Philadelphia, throughout Pennsylvania, and in Washington DC. He has helped shape the political landscape for decades, supporting the successful campaigns of Mayor Cherelle Parker, Gov. Ed Rendell, U.S. Sen. Bob Casey, and many others who ran for federal, state, and local office.

At Saxton & Stump, Ryan will lead the Firm's Philadelphia Regulatory & Government Relations work and support the practice group and the firm's business and healthcare clients, splitting his time between the Delaware Valley and Harrisburg. Ryan comes to Saxton & Stump with an impressive track record of successfully lobbying for tens of millions of dollars benefiting healthcare systems and hospitals throughout Pennsylvania.

"Bill is one of the most high-profile and respected lobbyists and political leaders in Pennsylvania," said Saxton & Stump Regulatory and Government Affairs Group Chair Kathleen Duffy Bruder. "His vast public and private sector relationships will provide tremendous value to our clients in the Philadelphia region and throughout the state."

As a lobbyist, Ryan has procured federal and state funding for regional healthcare systems and hospitals. He's also developed and led important projects like the North Philadelphia Health Enterprise Zone, which focuses on leveling the region's health disparities through innovative approaches. For decades, he's been a key lobbyist in directing funds for healthcare, Medicare, education, and more.

"Bill's reputation extends throughout the state, New Jersey, and in our nation's capital and will be a valuable asset to our growing Regulatory and Government Relations Group," Saxton & Stump CEO James W. Saxton said. "He brings a track record of generating successful legislative and funding outcomes that will enhance the advocacy efforts of the firm's clients."

"I'm excited to begin the next chapter of my career at Saxton & Stump," he said. "I've worked with many of the firm's professionals for years and know the quality of character they possess. The firm's future is bright, and it's energizing to be part of."
