CPBJ names Wayne Pecht to latest “Power List”

FIRM NEWSPRESS RELEASE

AUGUST 20, 2024

LANCASTER, Pa., August 20, 2024 — The Central Penn Business Journal has named Saxton & Stump shareholder Wayne Pecht to its “Power List for Banking, Finance, Accounting and Wealth Management.” Pecht is the co-chair of the Saxton & Stump Trusts and Estates Group, working to ensure clients receive the best legal advice and guidance to protect and transfer assets. He also has 40 years of experience in business and tax law and works with clients on wealth preservation, retirement, tax planning and a variety of other complex business needs.

In addition to his law degree from the Dickinson School of Law, Pecht earned his LL.M. from Georgetown University Law Center and is a certified public accountant.

“I’m grateful to CPBJ for including me in this prestigious list of my peers and people I have respected for years,” Pecht said. “The financial sector of the business world is an important one, and the people on this list have dedicated themselves to serving their clients.”

Pecht also has been a fixture on the annual “Best Lawyers in America” list in both Trusts and Estates and Corporate Law. In the community, he was a member of the board of supervisors for Silver Spring Township from 1994 to 2005, and he has been the solicitor for multiple Cumberland County offices.

Pecht joined Saxton & Stump earlier this year, and in that short time, firm CEO James W. Saxton said he’s already made a positive impact with his leadership and creative solutions for clients.

“Wayne brings decades of experience and knowledge to his clients every day” Saxton said. “He’s earned the respect of his peers and we are thrilled to see him included in the ‘Power List’ as a testament to that.”
