Kathryn Maza Courtney promoted to senior counsel at Saxton & Stump

FIRM NEWSPRESS RELEASE

JANUARY 10, 2025

MALVERN, Pa., January 10, 2025 — Saxton & Stump, a leading law firm known for its innovative approach to legal services, is pleased to announce the promotion of Kathryn D. Maza Courtney to senior counsel. As a key contributor to the Investigations and Criminal Defense, Appellate and Post-Trial Advocacy, and Healthcare Litigation groups, Courtney delivers strategic guidance to hospitals, healthcare professionals, and corporations, addressing litigation, appellate challenges, and risk mitigation issues.

The promotion took effect Jan. 1.

“Katie’s diverse and accomplished background sets her apart as a leader in the legal field,” said James W. Saxton, CEO of Saxton & Stump. “Her experience at one of the world’s preeminent law firms, combined with her clerkships for two distinguished federal judges, has given her a wide breadth of insight into complex legal matters. In her expanded role as senior counsel, we look forward to the impact she will have on the success of our firm and the clients we serve.”

Courtney joined Saxton & Stump following a distinguished tenure at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, one of the largest law firms in the world. Before moving into private practice, Courtney honed her craft by clerking for the esteemed Hon. Kent A. Jordan, who has been a judge at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit for nearly 20 years. She also clerked for the Hon. Eduardo C. Robreno at the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

She is a magna cum laude graduate of the Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law, where she has previously served as an adjunct professor. Courtney is also a magna cum laude graduate of Bryn Mawr College and is a former trustee of the Gladwyne Library.
