Sophie Miller is an associate in Saxton & Stump's Real Estate group in the Harrisburg office. She earned her law degree, cum laude, from Widener University Commonwealth Law School.

She previously served as a summer associate in 2024 with the former York County law firm Stock & Leader. In that role, she drafted easements and assisted with research, deed preparation, and real estate closings.

Prior to her experience at Stock & Leader, she served as a legal extern for the Pennsylvania Governor's Office of General Counsel where she conducted legal research, as well as analyzed and drafted statutory provisions.

Before law school, Sophie graduated from West Chester University with a degree in finance and economics. After graduation, she was a title clerk at Great Road Settlement Services, assisting with real estate closings, preparing settlement documents, and filing records with state and local offices.

Sophie holds a title license and is a certified notary public.
