

Arti A. Lakhani, MD

Medical Consultant

Email: alakhani@saxtonstump.com

Services and Industries

- Healthcare
- Risk Management and Quality Assurance

Education

Rush University Medical School, M.D.

University of Illinois in Urbana-Champaign, B.S.

Saint Louis University

Dr. Arti Lakhani is a medical consultant with the Saxton & Stump Healthcare Group and the Risk Management Quality Assurance Group. She is a board-certified oncologist and hematologist at the AdventHealth Cancer Institute in suburban Chicago and brings more than 15 years of experience as both a practicing physician and researcher, with deep involvement in clinical trials and patient care across all stages of cancer.

Dr. Lakhani's approach emphasizes personalized care, integrating evidence-based oncology with lifestyle, metabolic, and complementary strategies to support optimal patient outcomes.

Her leadership and clinical excellence have been widely recognized. Chicago Magazine named her a "Top Doc" each year from 2020 through 2026, and in 2022, "Women We Admire" recognized her as one of its "Top 50 Women Leaders in Medicine."

Recognitions

- Chicago Magazine “Top Doc” Award (2020-2026)
- “Women We Admire,” Top 50 Women Leaders in Medicine (2022)

Publications

- Colon and Rectal Cancer From Diagnosis to Treatment, co-author (2018)

Certifications

- Illinois-licensed Physician, #036-125357
- Certified, Internal Medicine, American Board of Internal Medicine (2011)
- Certified, Oncology, American Board of Internal Medicine (2014)
- Certified, Hematology, American Board of Internal Medicine (2015)

Speaking Engagements

- “Integrative Medicine: Enhancing Care, Improving Outcomes, Empowering Patients,” Amita Adventist Hospitals (2019)

Community Involvement

- Better Every Day Board of Directors, secretary

Professional Affiliations

- American Medical Association
- American Society of Hematology
- American Society of Clinical Oncology
- Society of Integrative Oncology
- Chemotherapy Quality Improvement Committee, Hinsdale Hospital (2012)