Nicole Furguiele is a concierge and legal assistant in the firm's Charleston office with more than 20 years of experience in customer service, administrative support, and service excellence within fast-paced, highly regulated environments. In this role, Nicole acts as the Charleston office's central point of contact for clients and visitors, while providing support to the office's professionals in reception, client services, and day-to-day operations.

Most recently, Nicole served as a Certified Sterile Compounding Technician for a national home infusion therapy provider, where she acted as a primary point of contact for pharmacists, nurses, providers, patients, and vendors. She also has experience as a Certified Pharmacy Technician in retail pharmacy settings.

Nicole is a United States Navy veteran, having served as an Operations Specialist (Petty Officer). She is also a graduate of a healthcare leadership program and pursued Pre-Pharmacy Studies at the University of Pittsburgh and the Community College of Allegheny County.
