Education

Duquesne University, B.A.

Alexa Collins is a Paralegal in the firm's Pittsburgh office, where she supports the Business Litigation and Strategic Solutions team with case management, document preparation, and client and court coordination.

Before joining the firm, Alexa worked at a range of other law firms, from small boutique practices to a mid-size regional litigation firm and a national tax-litigation firm, where she built more than four years of legal support experience across property tax appeals, insurance defense, and medical malpractice litigation, managing case files, preparing and filing pleadings and discovery documents, and coordinating depositions, mediations, and hearings.

Alexa is a graduate of Duquesne University, with a bachelor's degree in Internationally Focused Political Science with a minor in English Writing.
