PBA reelects attorney Erik Hume as vice chair of Real Property Section

FIRM NEWSPRESS RELEASE

MAY 26, 2020

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 26, 2020 — Saxton & Stump attorney Erik M. Hume has been reelected as vice chair of the Real Property Division for the Pennsylvania Bar Association \(PBA\) Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section. His new term began on May 8.

The reelection marks Erik's second one-year term as vice chair. First elected in May 2019, Erik is once again responsible for supervising and directing the work of the Real Property Division, which includes legislative and professional development initiatives as well as serving on the section's Executive Committee.

The Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section, which is the largest section of the PBA, brings together practitioners with varying levels of experience throughout Pennsylvania and develops their knowledge of respective areas of law through collaboration and mentorship among its members.

Previously within the position, Erik gave testimony at the State Capitol Building in Harrisburg on November 20, 2019 on behalf of the PBA before the Pennsylvania Senate Urban Affairs and Housing Committees. He presented informational background about common interest ownership communities (CIOCs) and recommended the approval of Senate Bill 802, which would require county planning agencies to collect information about existing CIOCs.

Erik is the Chair of Saxton & Stump's Real Estate Group. In his practice, he handles a variety of matters including commercial and residential real estate transactions, land development, commercial loan origination and counseling of clients on condominium and planned community matters. Erik has represented clients in complex real estate transactions, including residential real estate developers, credit unions, pipeline companies, auto dealers, regional retail chains, colleges and universities and health care providers.

Saxton & Stump provides solutions for complex legal issues and partners with clients to create a roadmap for their success. The firm is committed to empowering clients by delivering five-star service and results-focused advice.
