

NEWS & INSIGHTS

Attorney Chad Goebel joins Saxton & Stump's litigation team in Malvern

FIRM NEWSPRESS RELEASE

OCTOBER 5, 2020

MALVERN, Pa., October 5, 2020 — Attorney Chilton \("Chad"\) G. Goebel has joined Saxton & Stump as a Shareholder in the firm's healthcare litigation and commercial litigation practices in Malvern. Goebel is a trial attorney with significant experience in litigating complex medical malpractice, product liability and casualty matters involving catastrophic injuries. He is the 13th attorney Saxton & Stump has added so far this year to its growing team of more than 100 business professionals, including 51 attorneys.

"Chad is known for his aggressive and pragmatic approach to defending cases," said Saxton & Stump CEO James W. Saxton. "His experience and impressive reputation in the courtroom makes him an outstanding addition to our team of 39 litigators, two former judges and trial technology consultants to represent our clients.”

Saxton & Stump was named in the 2020 edition of U.S. News – Best Lawyers “Best Law Firms” as a Tier 1 firm in Professional Malpractice Law – Defendants and Tier 2 firm in Medical Malpractice Law – Defendants in Metropolitan Philadelphia. The firm was also ranked Tier 1 Litigation – Health Care in Metropolitan Harrisburg. This marks the third consecutive year that Saxton & Stump has been ranked on the list since the firm’s inception in 2015.

Prior to joining Saxton & Stump, Goebel was a partner at Philadelphia-based German, Gallagher & Murtagh where he practiced in the professional liability, casualty litigation, products liability and commercial liabilities groups. He received his J.D. from Widener University School of Law and began his career with Messick & Weber, P.C. based in Media, Pennsylvania. Goebel received his B.S. in biology and philosophy from LaSalle University.

Goebel, and all of Saxton & Stump’s litigators, are supported by insights from Hon. Lawrence F. Stengel \(Ret.\), former Chief Judge for the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania (EDPA) and Hon. Robert A. Graci \(Ret.\), former Pennsylvania Superior Court judge and retired Chief Counsel to the Judicial Conduct Board of Pennsylvania. Stengel joined the firm shortly after announcing his retirement two years ago. He previously served for 14 years as a U.S. District Judge for the EDPA and 14 years with the Lancaster Court of Common Pleas before joining Saxton & Stump to lead its internal investigations practice, which has grown significantly since his arrival.

Saxton & Stump’s strategic growth outlook

Saxton & Stump has added 13 attorneys and seven professionals already this year and formed five new practice areas in Bankruptcy and Creditors’ Rights, Information Privacy and Cybersecurity, Regulatory and Government Affairs, Trucking and Commercial Transportation and Banking and Financial Services. Last year, the firm doubled the footprint of its Malvern office and based on their strategic plan for 2020, plans to continue to expand its current team of attorneys and professionals, focusing on bringing additional resources to support client needs.

“Our focus remains on our clients and as their businesses grow, we continually adapt our strategic plan to grow with them,” said Saxton. “We plan to continue to add lawyers this year and have an aggressive plan for 2021, adding lawyers who are client-focused, innovative and leaders in their fields.”

Saxton & Stump provides solutions for complex legal issues and partners with clients to create a roadmap for their success. The firm is committed to empowering clients by delivering five-star service and results-focused advice.

Related People

Chad G. Goebel

Related Services and Industries

Healthcare Litigation