James W. Saxton Named Senior Fellow of Litigation Counsel of America

FIRM NEWSPRESS RELEASE

AUGUST 8, 2017

Lancaster County, PA, August 15, 2017 – Saxton & Stump is pleased to announce that James W. Saxton has been named a Senior Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America (LCA).

The LCA is a trial lawyer honorary society composed of less than one-half of one percent of American lawyers. Fellowship in the LCA is highly selective and by invitation only. Fellows are selected based upon excellence and accomplishment in litigation, both at the trial and appellate levels, and superior ethical reputation. Senior Fellow status in the society is reserved for advanced commitment to and support of the LCA, Diversity Law Institute and Trial Law Institute. The LCA is aggressively diverse in its composition. Established as a trial and appellate lawyer honorary society reflecting the American bar in the twenty-first century, the LCA represents the best in law among its membership. The number of Fellowships has been kept at an exclusive limit by design, allowing qualifications, diversity and inclusion to align effectively, with recognition of excellence in litigation across all segments of the bar. Fellows are generally at the partner or shareholder level, or are independent practitioners with recognized experience and accomplishment. In addition, the LCA is dedicated to promoting superior advocacy, professionalism and ethical standards among its Fellows.

Mr. Saxton is the CEO of Saxton & Stump. He has sustained an active health law and healthcare litigation practice for more than 30 years. He oversees cases throughout Pennsylvania in state and federal court, and over his career, has tried many cases to verdict. He advises insurance companies on litigation and risk management issues nationally, helps to create risk management platforms and innovates on new trial techniques. Mr. Saxton has contributed to three hundred articles and books and is an invited speaker to nationally prominent healthcare organizations on health law and risk management issues. He has been recognized by his peer as a Best Lawyer, Lawyer of Distinction, Super Lawyers and Select Lawyers. Mr. Saxton is an active member of many professional associations, including a Fellow of the College of Physicians of Philadelphia and Board Member for SE Healthcare Quality Consulting. He believes strongly in giving back to the community, volunteering in leadership roles and lending his expertise to many healthcare and community non profits. He was the recipient of the Excellence in Philanthropy Award presented by the Lancaster General Health Foundation's Board of Trustees and was awarded Philanthropist of the Year by the Central Pennsylvania Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals.

Based in Pennsylvania, Saxton & Stump is a legal and consulting firm that represents healthcare professionals and other businesses. The firm represents their clients in a wide range of legal and consulting services, including healthcare litigation and risk mitigation, labor and employment, and corporate insurance coverage and bad faith matters. In addition to a team of experienced lawyers and paralegals, the firm employs physicians, nurses, psychologists, physician reimbursement specialists, health policy thought leaders and business consultants.
