Erik M. Hume, Esq. to Present at Annual Real Estate Institute

FIRM NEWSPRESENTATION

DECEMBER 5, 2018

Lancaster, Pa, December 5, 2018 - Saxton & Stump, a Pennsylvania-based law firm, is pleased to announce that Erik M. Hume, Esq. will present for a fourth year at the Pennsylvania Bar Institute's Annual Real Estate Institute on December 7.

Erik will be presenting "Creating Your First Common Interest Community: An Overview for Creating Projects Under the Condominium and Planned Community Acts". During his presentation, Erik will advise attendees on the selection, creation, and management of common ownership interest communities in Pennsylvania. In addition to addressing the federal and state laws that govern these projects, Erik will share practical experience gained from his almost 20 years' experience representing developers, associations, and unit owners in condominium and planned community matters.

In its 22nd year, the Real Estate Institute is the premier continuing education conference for real estate lawyers in Pennsylvania. In addition to top-notch presentations on a variety of real estate-related topics, the Institute allows hundreds of real estate attorneys to gather to discuss updates and changes in the industry.
