Saxton & Stump's Kathy Granbois Selected to Receive CPBJ 2019 Women of Influence Award

FIRM NEWSPRESS RELEASE

MAY 20, 2019

LANCASTER, Pa., May 20, 2019 — Saxton & Stump is pleased to announce that Central Penn Business Journal selected Katherine Pandelidis Granbois, Esq. to receive the 2019 Women of Influence award.

Thirty Women of Influence were selected by a panel of judges, along with the editors of Central Penn Business Journal, for their significant contributions to their respective fields and for their leadership in Central Pennsylvania in the areas of civic leadership, communications, education, finance, general business, health care, law, philanthropy, real estate and technology.

Central Penn Business Journal launched Women of Influence in 2010 to recognize those who are leaving a mark on the community throughout the state.

“Through their professional accomplishments and community engagement the Women of Influence winners shape and enrich our region.” said Cathy Hirko, associate publisher and editorial director of Central Penn Business Journal. “We are honored to recognize these women who demonstrate their influence in the community every day.”

Kathy is a shareholder in Saxton & Stump’s Business and Corporate Law Group. She has over 25 years of experience in the industry and regularly works with clients ranging from startups, large family-owned companies, middle market companies, Fortune 500 companies and nonprofit entities.

Kathy is an active member of the Lancaster community. She currently serves as board chair of United Way of Lancaster County and has served as a mentor in the Lancaster Chamber of Commerce and Industry Women in Business mentoring program, as fundraising chair of the Lancaster Youth Amateur Hockey League and as a volunteer for Assets of Lancaster.

The 2019 Women of Influence and Circle of Excellence awards will be presented June 24 at Harrisburg Hilton. Winners will be profiled in the June 28 issue of Central Penn Business Journal.
