Education

Lebanon Valley College, B.S., cum laude, 1984

Andrea Gadd is a senior paralegal with Saxton & Stump who has over 34 years of experience working on complex cases across broad practice areas that include medical malpractice, healthcare and professional licensure, general liability, products liability, commercial and business litigation, insurance fraud and real estate. Andrea has supported seasoned trial attorneys since 1987 utilizing her experience and technology skills supporting their cases and trials in County and Federal Courtrooms across Central Pennsylvania for over 70 arbitrations and trials.

Prior to joining Saxton & Stump, Andrea served as a senior paralegal and trial technician for a Central Pennsylvania litigation support company providing paralegal and technical support to attorneys and their firms. In collaboration with counsel, she prepared presentations to display critical evidence using digital and various media through complex software. Andrea also collaborated with the principals to develop their litigation and trial support department. She facilitated and presented numerous CLE seminars for regional law firms to educate attorneys and paralegals on the integration of trial software to produce a more seamless, time efficient, and impactful presentation of evidence at trial.

Andrea is proficient in inData TrialDirector 6.8 and LexisNexis Sanctions trial presentation software.

Prior to that, Andrea worked for twenty years as a paralegal office manager and litigation paralegal for one of the top-rated plaintiff's firms in Lancaster County and then worked with the lead counsel for the healthcare licensure and medical malpractice group at a large defense firm in Harrisburg. During those twenty years, she worked not only as auxiliary support to attorneys but also managed other aspects of law firm operation.
