Erika L. Montgomery brings more than 15 years of legal experience to Saxton & Stump and serves as a paralegal/client services professional in the firm's Harrisburg office. Erika has extensive knowledge of all aspects of case management including discovery, coordination of depositions, obtaining and reviewing medical records and filing in local, federal and appellate courts.

Erika has provided legal support to lawyers in medical malpractice, insurance, local and state tax, commercial litigation, and eminent domain practices. She gained valuable client service experience early in her career as a customer service representative with a large, Lancaster-based financial institution.
