Education

Manor College, A.S., Paralegal Studies, 1993

Karin E. Rossi is a seasoned paralegal with more than 17 years of healthcare litigation experience. She has experience with all aspects of case management including drafting and tracking of discovery requests, deposition summaries, lawsuit evaluation reports and basic motions. She retains and corresponds with defense expert witnesses and has experience in researching experts for direct and/or cross-examination purposes prior to trial.

Since becoming a healthcare litigation paralegal, she has provided assistance to attorneys in a number of complex medical negligence trials. This has given her extensive experience with pre-trial litigation support. Karin's extensive experience, team focus and technical skills enrich the firm's litigation team in all aspects of case development up through successful resolution for clients.
