

Amanda W. McClellan

Government Relations Advisor

Email: awm@saxtonstump.com

Phone: \(717\) 941-1225941-1225)

Services and Industries

- Regulatory and Government Affairs

Education

University of Pennsylvania, 2007

MS Historic Preservation, The School of Design

Certificate in Real Estate Design & Development, The Wharton School

University of Mary Washington, 2004

BA Historic Preservation

Amanda W. McClellan is a Government Relations Advisor and supports the firm's Regulatory and Government Affairs group by assisting in the development and implementation of economic development funding strategies for clients and coordinating legislative outreach and communications.

Mandy has a significant background in real estate and economic development, having previously served as a senior real estate manager for the Philadelphia Industrial Development Corporation. During her time there, Mandy was appointed by former Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter to serve for two years on the task force on city-owned facilities. She has previously volunteered with and served on many Philadelphia-based organizations and committees such as the City of Philadelphia's Vacant Property Review Committee, Urban Land Institute's (ULI) Young Leadership Exchange Committee, Board Member for Penn Design Alumni Association.

Mandy received her M.S. in historic preservation from the University of Pennsylvania, a Certificate in Real Estate Design and Development from The Wharton School and her B.A. in historic preservation from the University of Mary Washington.