LANCASTER, Pa., October 26, 2026 — City & State PA has named Bill Ryan, Senior Lobbyist in Saxton & Stump's Regulatory and Government Affairs Group, to its annual "Fifty Over 50" list. The honor recognizes 50 of Pennsylvania's most influential leaders over 50, from trailblazers in government, business, and media whose vision and leadership have helped shape the Commonwealth.

With more than 40 years of experience as a political consultant and healthcare lobbyist, Ryan leads the firm's Regulatory and Government Affairs efforts in Philadelphia and supports the group's business and healthcare clients.

"It's an incredible honor to be included among so many accomplished leaders who have dedicated their careers to shaping Pennsylvania for the better," said Ryan. "I've been fortunate to work alongside outstanding public servants, healthcare leaders, and advocates throughout my career, and this recognition reflects the impact we've been able to make together."

Before joining Saxton & Stump, Ryan held a series of senior government affairs roles. Most recently, he served as Vice President of Government Relations & Public Affairs at Einstein Healthcare Network, now part of Jefferson Health. He spent nearly two decades there, helping secure tens of millions of dollars in funding for the Philadelphia-area health system.

Earlier in his career, Ryan served as acting president and vice president of advocacy for the Arthritis Foundation of Eastern Pennsylvania. There, he helped establish the Pennsylvania Arthritis and Osteoporosis Legislative Caucus, which paved the way for the Pennsylvania Arthritis Action Plan, the first such plan in the nation.

"Bill's deep relationships, policy expertise, and genuine commitment to public service make him an invaluable asset to our clients and our firm," said Kathleen Duffy Bruder, Shareholder and Chair of Saxton & Stump's Regulatory and Government Affairs Group. "His work has earned the respect of elected officials across the Commonwealth and in Washington DC, and this recognition from City & State PA is a fitting tribute to his contributions to Pennsylvania."
