Holly A. English brings a wealth of paralegal experience in estate planning, Orphans' Court litigation, and estate administration to Saxton & Stump. She assists clients and attorneys with many aspects of estate and trust planning including conducting legal research, preparing court documents and drafting estate planning documents, such as financial power of attorney, health care power of attorney, last will and testament and various trusts. Prior to joining Saxton & Stump, she served as a trusts and estates paralegal for a Lancaster-based law firm. In addition, she completed internships in estate planning and family law with two Lancaster County law firms.
